All Saints Day • November 1, 2015

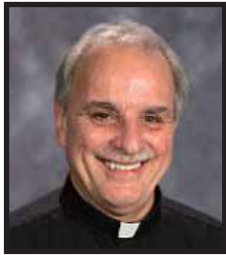

*Thank you St. Joseph Parish for coming to our Annual Dinner Auction -
"This Little Light of Mine"*

A special thanks to the 2015 Dinner Auction Committee:

Jodie Berkgigler, Joni Coleman, Loretta Forsythe, Emily Hale and Sam Wade.

A special thanks also to our three auctioneers: Jeremy Coleman, Kevin Engler, and Chad Speakar.

From the Pastor's Pen

Dear Parishioners of St. Joseph,

A Special Mass and Anointing of the Sick for our Sick, Elderly, and Homebound

This Wednesday, November 4 at 10:00 am we will have our annual Anointing of the Sick Mass and will offer the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick to all parishioners who are in need of healing. At this time 88 individuals have RSVP'd to receive this healing sacrament.

A quote from the General Introduction to the ritual itself, Pastoral Care of the Sick, explains more: "Suffering and illness have always been among the greatest problems that trouble the human spirit. Christians feel and experience pain as do all other people; yet their faith helps them to grasp more deeply the mystery of suffering and to bear their pain with greater courage. From Christ's words they know that sickness has meaning and value for their own salvation and the salvation of the world. They also know that Christ, who during his life often visited and healed the sick, loves them in their illness."

Most importantly, like all of the beautiful sacraments of our faith, it is Christ who bestows the Anointing upon us through the sacrament.

Our 8th grade students will be invited to serve as hospitality ministers and will also help to host the luncheon chaired by our Women of Mary.

Our thanks to Agnes Hinkebein, RN, our Parish Health Minister who will be organizing the events of the morning and coordinating rides and assistance to those attending.

Mass Intention Book Opens Tomorrow Monday, November 2

Our Mass Intention book will be "opened" tomorrow, Monday, November 2. Please note that each household will be limited to only six masses throughout the year. This practice was begun to be fair to all parishioners. No masses for 2017 will be reserved until next November. Dates start on January 1, 2016 and continue through December 31, 2016. Canonically we are not allowed to accept more masses than we can offer within one year.

Thank You!

-From the Dinner Auction Committee
"This Little Light of Mine"
We Raised $67,132.96 for our school!!

I would like to offer up some Thanks You's to very important people who made our Dinner Auction possible.

It would not be possible without the generosity of so many people and businesses both locally and nationally. If you purchased a good or service at our Auction, please remember to say Thank You to the person or business whose donation you purchased. It is a great reward for them to know that their time and effort put forth to support our school made a difference.

And now to the Thank You's-

First- to all of you that joined us, supported our school, placed bids and had fun- Thank you for making the Dinner Auction a priority and supporting our school.

Thank you for any time you may have given to make the night possible. Whether you organized a class basket, donated to a class basket, donated an item or service, helped with decorating or set up, baked, or prayed for a successful evening, you all helped make this night possible.

Fr. Rickey- Thank you for the support and encouragement you have given us with the planning of this year's event but most importantly, thank you for your trust. You trusted our decisions, our planning and our judgment and for that we are truly thankful.

Mrs. Shirley Bieser- our school Principal. Thank you for your support, for working with our schedules and the school schedules and for being a guiding light to our children and our teachers.

Our Classroom Teachers- Thank You for your amazing donations to the silent auction, for allowing us the countless interruptions to your classes and for always being happy and smiling whenever we showed up. Our children are blessed to have teachers who care about them, who encourage them and who are shining examples of God's love for them.

Amy Williams- Our amazing new art teacher this year deserves a very big Thank You for her hard work, planning, preparation and execution of the amazing class projects that were prepared for our auction tonight as well as the adorable black lanterns spread throughout the building. The kids truly enjoyed making the projects as a class and are proud of their work because your love of art has shown them how creative they can be.

A very, very, very special Thank You goes to Brian Wade, Jeremy Coleman, Kevin Hale and Tom Berkbigler who not only put up with us for the last year but also putting up with storage issues and our crazy schedules and planning of the Auction. On top of all of that, those 4 guys didn't tell us no when we said we wanted to decorate the ceiling (which they maybe should have done) but instead took that challenge and our wild ideas and made them happen for us.

There are two ladies who have gone above and beyond for us. Lisa Cartee and Jessi Howard have done and redone everything we asked of them, made sign after sign and still have a big smile for us all when we walk into the office. While they are doing their jobs, they do more than their jobs for this auction and we could never do it all without them. Thank you ladies for everything you have done.

Jane Ramos- Thank you for your support, your encouragement, your smiles and your willingness to always help whenever asked as well as your assistance with our technical issues.

Abe AuBuchon- A very big Thank You for all your work online with our website as well as the slide for this evening. He is always willing to step up whenever we need anything and we truly blessed for that.

Lastly- we want to say Thank you to Jami AuBuchon who has worked so hard on the video. She has done an amazing job of reminding us what our theme- "This Little Light of Mine"- is really about.

A Special Evening for the Women of St. Joseph's Parish Our 6th Annual Advent by Candlelight "Prepare"

Our annual Advent by Candlelight evening will soon be upon us... this is a wonderful way for our ladies to prepare their hearts for the Christmas season each year. This year's Advent by Candlelight will be held on Sunday, November 29 from 6:00 - 8:45 pm for our ladies to come together for an evening of reflection, celebration, and friendship as they prepare the way of the Lord during the Season of Advent.

This evening is designed to bring our ladies together for a relaxing evening of socialization while providing a faithful reflection on the preparation for Christmas. Sue Wilker, RN, Program Coordinator for the Archdiocese Priest Wellness Program will be our guest speaker and will give a heartfelt spiritual presentation titled, "Prepare".

Her presentation will be followed by a meditation by our parishioner, Jami AuBuchon. The inspirational music for the evening will be provided by Daryl Buchheit. This evening is an exceptional time to focus on the true meaning of Christmas as we prepare for our family celebrations.

This evening is also designed as a fund raiser for our "Secret Santa" fund to help parishioners in special need this holiday season. The top hostess raising the most money from her guests at her table will receive a special gift. All women are welcome! If you would like to attend, please call the parish office and let us know! Deadline to RSVP for this special evening is Monday, November 23.

Remembering Those Laid to Rest in our Cemetery Who Served our Country this Veteran's Day

If you have a loved one buried in either of our cemeteries and they served in our military but do not have a military headstone, please contact the parish office. We would like to remember them on Veterans Day by placing a flag at their grave site.

Launching MyParish App TODAY!!

Today we are proud to present our parish with MyParish App! The St. Joseph myParish app will let us continue to pursue new opportunities to foster a stronger parish life! This new app will allow us to send you useful and important messages throughout the week regarding our parish life and events, and allow you to reply to messages or RSVP for events.

Be sure to download the app after Mass today by visiting myparishapp.com or searching for myparish on your phone's app store, and stay connected with us all week long. Please see Abe's column for more information!

Our Holiday "Giving Tree" A Wonderful Opportunity to Give this Christmas Season...

The Women of Mary are again sponsoring a "Giving Tree" to benefit our St. Vincent de Paul organization. Since many of our clients who visit our St. Vincent de Paul come only once a month, we are hoping to have some Christmas presents available for them and for their children in early December. The tree is located in the entry of the Parish Center.

You may take an ornament from the tree, purchase the item on the label, and then place the unwrapped item under the tree. The volunteers from St. Vincent de Paul will pick up the items and distribute them to their clients before Christmas. The ornaments can be picked up after today. Thanks to everyone for your support to our holiday giving tree, each year you are so generous to those in need from our local community.

And Finally...

"Always remember that as long as we keep the Eucharist the center of our lives, everything else will fall in place...of that I am confident"!!!

Blessings of Peace...Fr. Rickey

Into your hands, Father of mercies we commend our brothers and sisters of St. Joseph's parish in the sure and certain hope that, together with all who have died in Christ will rise with Him on the last day.

We give you thanks for the blessings which you bestowed upon them in this life: they are signs to us of your goodness and of our fellowship with the saints in Christ.

Merciful Lord, turn toward us and listen to our prayers: open the gates of paradise to your servants and help us who remain to comfort one another with assurances of faith, until we all meet in Christ and are with you and our loved ones forever. Amen

A Way of Life STEWARDSHIP

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”
(Matthew 5:3)

“Poor in spirit” is confusing for many of us. It simply means to place your trust in God, putting His will first and being strong in faith. As we celebrate the lives of the saints on All Saints Day, remember, we, too are called to be saints. Dialing down our own pride and ego and turning up the humility will help us on our path to sainthood.

*With heartfelt thanks...
From Deacon Al and Jeanie Gegg*

We would like to extend our gratitude for all of the love and care we received when Deacon Al was not feeling well.

All of the cards, visits and meals were much appreciated and helped us so much!

We are so blessed to be a part of such a loving parish.

All Saints

“Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.” This antiphon for today’s responsorial psalm offers the focus of today’s readings. As we on earth celebrate the triumph of all the saints—the ones officially canonized by the Church, and the countless others who have also reached heaven—we add nothing to their glory. But we give ourselves reason to hope. We, too, long to see the face of God and believe that we can one day be counted among those whose robes, as John tells us in the book of Revelation, are washed “white in the blood of the Lamb” (Revelation 7:14).

The passage from John’s first letter offers further assurance: we are God’s children who will one day see God. But today’s Gospel pulls us past longing and reassurance into action. Jesus clearly tells us what we must do to be counted among the saints. We must be poor in spirit, hungry for holiness, merciful, singlehearted, and peacemakers. Then we, too, will see the face of God.

The Last Things

No one really likes to think about the last of anything, particularly the last days of our lives. Yet there is a side to our nature that is drawn to thoughts of the end of life at this time of the year. We’re beginning the last month of the church year and the second-to-last month of the calendar year. Night falls earlier and earlier each day. Leaves fall from the trees, leaving branches that look dead. Skies are gray. It is November.

The Church uses these waning days and darker skies as the season to remind us of the last things. Today’s feast, the Solemnity of All Saints, is the centerpiece of three days that point to doctrines we proclaim each time we say the Nicene Creed: “We believe in the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting!” And while the days and our hearts may be dark, the readings today are bright with the light of faith. John’s vision in the book of Revelation reveals dazzling angels and white-robed saints gathered in triumph around the throne of God. In the responsorial psalm we sing our longing to see God’s face, and in the second reading John writes that we are God’s children and will, in fact, see God “as he is” (1 John 3:2). This is our hope. This is God’s promise.

The Blessed

Then, in the Gospel, we read Jesus’ formula for saint-making. “You will be blessed,” we are told: blessed if we are poor in spirit, sorrowing, lowly, hungry for holiness, merciful, single-hearted, peacemakers, and persecuted. Matthew’s words in this Gospel point us directly back to the first reading. “These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb” (Revelation 7:14). Today we celebrate the triumph of those who already gaze on the face of God. Tomorrow we cry out for mercy with those in purgatory, who, like us on earth, still long to see God’s face.

Today’s Readings: Revelation 7:2–4, 9–14; Psalm 24:1–6; 1 John 3:1–3; Matthew 5:1–12a
