Latest Update on Father Rickey...

Journal entry by Shawna Valleroy — 9/7/2017

Uncle Rickey said he had a Ping Pong Ball type of day yesterday! Started with phone calls to neurologists trying to get an appointment but, with the problems with the recent surgery, no neurological doctor wanted the case due to the coils! He has had three falls at the place he is staying and was wanting to know if the falls are neurological or vascular related. He later had a road trip to his vascular surgeon in Festus. He should know for certain what is causing the sudden falling today!

His hope, please notice the word his... it is his hope to come back to the farm on Friday and continue to heal there for a few more weeks! His body has been through a lot the past few weeks! But my Dad would rather he stay in the St. Louis area and be close to Barnes. I am sure that my dad and uncle Bruce got a few gray hairs early Saturday morning.

He did get the "talk" today about healthy eating... so please just healthy food choices if you choose to visit!! No Hoeckele Bakery items or junk food! We want to help him to eat healthy!!!

What an amazing week it has been for him!!! Thanks again for all of your love and support on this journey!!!

Journal entry by Shawna Valleroy — 9/7/2017

Uncle Rickey went to the vascular surgeon today who originally put the stent in his leg to open his Femoral Artery on August 2nd. He did not get exactly the news he wanted to hear today, but the doctor is fairly confident that his falling is a Neurological problem that is a result from the stroke and not related to the vascular. He has to be really careful to catch himself before falling due to the plavix(the blood thinner he is taking). He had kind of a bummed day! He has an appointment with a vascular specialist at Barnes on 9/12/17.

Keep the prayers going for him... he was hoping to come home to the farm this weekend.

I think I may have fallen from the grace of being Uncle Rickey's favorite niece... he didn't appreciate in one of the earlier posts, that I said friends and family should not bring Hoeckele Bakery goods to the farm for his healthy diet! Ummm.... Cherry coffee cake is not the same as a healthy serving of fresh cherries, nor do the cheese danish rolls in the bakery have the same calcium as a piece of cheese wrapped in plastic!!! Hoeckele strawberry tarts do not count as a pint of fresh strawberries! At times he can be really convincing!!! Their cream puffs no matter how big they are, do not equal the calcium in a glass of milk!

I do wonder how the ICU nurses handled him for a whole week! Hope the good sisters at our Archbishop's residence did not run away from their home this week!

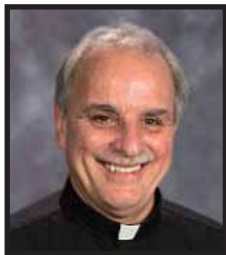

The good news is that he is getting his wish and will be going back to the farm today!!! We will all do our best to help him eat healthy and get him back to St. Joe's soon!!! Visitors are most welcomed!!! Good luck to whoever cooks for him at St. Joseph's!!!! Don't fall for it, if he tells you that a plate of gizzards from the Anvil, in Ste. Genevieve, is on his bucket list!!!! Nor, if he asks for a birthday cake for our Blessed Mother's birthday today!!!

Journal entry by Fr. Rickey Valleroy — 9/9/2017

A huge thanks to one of my favorite nieces, Shawna, who has been keeping everyone updated through these journal updates. She is turning over the keypad to me now... so you'll be reading updates that are being written directly by me!

Randy is picking me up this morning and I will be heading to the farm to continue my recovery. It has truly been an amazing week staying at the Archbishop's residence! My sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Archbishop, Fr. Mike Boehme, and to Sr. Marie Josepha, RN, and Sr. Marie Paula, MD. Their hospitality was indeed even beyond St. Benedict's Rule!!!

Now to the farm to rest up for a few weeks and seeing doctors in between. Keep the prayers going that we may find the cause of the sudden falls and a solution to the problem! Thanks for all of the love and support through the past few months!!!!

From the Pastor's Pen

Dear Parishioners of St. Joseph,
Come Join Us Today for
 Our Annual Parish
 Ministry Weekend!!!

Everyone is invited to attend our Parish Ministry Weekend sponsored by our Parish Staff. This weekend you will have the opportunity to visit the various ministries that our parish offers. Come and see how you can become more involved and active in our parish. The Parish Ministry Weekend is after all masses this weekend in the parish center. I hope you will take a moment and join us for some cookies, punch and community.

Yesterdays Kids will be going to see Church Basement Ladies THIS WEDNESDAY!!!

Just a reminder to all Yesterday's Kids who will be attending our outing this Wednesday that we will be loading the bus on the Lober Bldg parking lot at 11:30 am. Here is the itinerary for the day:

11:30 am - Load the Bus
 12:00 pm - Depart from St. Joseph
 1:30 pm - Arrive at Westport Playhouse
 4:00 pm - Depart from Westport Playhouse
 4:30 pm - Arrive at Cracker Barrel
 5:30 pm - Depart from Cracker Barrel
 7:00 pm - Arrive at St. Joseph

It's going to be an extremely fun day!!!

All are Invited to Our Father's Table Next Sunday

"Our Father's Table" is next Sunday, September 24 from 4 - 6 pm in our school cafeteria. All parishioners are invited to come and enjoy a delicious meal. Please invite anyone you know that is having a difficult time and may be in need of a good home cooked meal.

This month, they are having a Pizza Party!

An Ole' Fashioned Parish Chicken Fry to be held on October 1

Our annual Fall "All You Can Eat" chicken fry will be on Sunday, October 1 from 11:00 to 5:00 pm in our gym. Those who have eaten at our parish picnic know that we have some of the best fried chicken in St. Francois County!!! Tickets for the Chicken Fry are $9.00 for adults, $5.00 for children under 12 and children under 5 are FREE.

Congratulations to those from our Parish who will have the Honor of Laying a Wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier

At our planning meeting for our upcoming Chicken Fry to raise funds for our 12th Annual Parish Pilgrimage to Washington D.C., we drew the names of the four parishioners that will represent our parish by having the distinct honor of laying a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National cemetery.

The four names randomly drawn from all of the pilgrim's names for this awe-inspiring honor were Andrea Halek, Calvin Howard, Clare Maloney and Tim Maloney.

St. Catherine's Annual Fall Festival and Turkey Shoot

Next weekend, St. Catherine's in Coffman will be having their annual Fall Festival and Turkey shoot along with an Antique Silent Auction. If you are free next Sunday afternoon and would like to enjoy a nice country drive, I invite you out to Coffman for their annual Fall Festival and Shooting match.

Their country store is filled with a tremendous amount of homemade pies, cakes, breads and home-canned goods.

There will also be an antique silent auction that you won't want to miss. See page 14 in this weeks bulletin for a list of some of the items to be auctioned. I promise a fun family day for all!!!

"Always remember that as long as we keep the Eucharist the center of our lives, everything else will fall in place...of that I am confident"!!!

Blessings of Peace...Fr. Rickey

YOUTH ROCKS!

A Letter from our Kindergarten Teacher Mrs. Jill Daniels...

Monarchs, Eclipses, and "The Big School", Oh My!

Kindergarten has had a GREAT start to the new school year! We began our kindergarten Science with monarch caterpillars in our room and were observers of their life cycle. We were sad to let them go, and wonder if they will make the trip to Mexico! We had our first school Mass this week with our prayer partners and we did great! Homework this week is to bring in some Environmental Print that we can read. It can be a sign around town (McDonalds, Taco Bell, STOP), or from our cereal box, catalog, or magazine. We are all READERS!

We are enjoying Elephant and Piggie books. And in math, we are learning about numbers and "subitizing"! We think kindergarten in the "big school" is pretty great!

Mrs. Daniels

Thank You! Thank You! Thank You!

Mrs. Schwent was the winner of the $1000 in the Stars Shinning Bright Raffle. She donated $500 to Myranda's (her Godchild) 3rd grade classroom. She and Mrs. Eaton are pictured with the some of the items that were purchased.

A Message from Fr. Abe...

THE UNLIMITED MERCY OF GOD By Fr. Abe Arganiosa

St. Peter wanted to know to what extent can we forgive our brethren who committed offenses against us and he was surprised to hear that for Jesus forgiveness should be given not only seven times but seven times seventy which means, unlimited. The answer of the Lord Jesus gave us an opportunity to enter the heart of God who is rich in mercy [Eph 2:4/ Ps 145:8] and one who is “Love” [1 Jn 4:8].

When a person’s heart is full of anger, hatred and vengeance, it will be very difficult or even close to impossible to forgive those who have hurt and wronged us. Only the hearts full of love and of peace can forgive again and again, because only love is more powerful than hate. A heart full of love can forgive continuously and repeatedly because it doesn’t enjoy lingering in anger, but prefers instead to live in peace with God, with one’s self and with others. This is evident in every loving home. No matter how many times we made our moms shout in anger because we broke a glass or refused to listen, at the time of meal there will always be delicious food on the table and at the end of the day there will be hugs and kisses before going to bed. Love conquers everything. It heals the deepest wounds of the heart, calms the anger within the soul and restores what is broken by human frailty.

In my priestly ministry the most touching moments usually occur in the Sacraments of Reconciliation [Confession] wherein many penitents shed tears for their grave sins and yet always coming out cleansed by God’s unlimited grace. Where sin abounds the grace of God abounds all the more [Rom 5:20]. On the pastoral side, the apostolate that moves me most is The Prison Ministry wherein we celebrate the Holy Mass and give the Sacraments to people considered by our society as outcasts, undeserving of freedom because of the crimes they’ve committed. Most probably they’ve done terrible crimes which justify the call for justice by the offended party. Yet, the Church, as the Sacrament of God’s love, still ministers to their spiritual needs because they are still God’s children. When hope is gone, the Church must hope against hope that these human beings can still be transformed by Divine Grace.

A Way of Life

STEWARDSHIP

“For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord’s” - ROMANS 14:8

This is the essence of stewardship – everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. We aren’t “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts that God has given us, especially our very own lives. Pray to God, daily, and ask Him how He wants you to use the gifts He has given you.

A Note From Father Rickey...

We are still in need of bottles for our bottle booth!

Please remember our Country Store while you are canning this Summer!

Blessings of Peace...Fr. Rickey
